Birmingham Savoyards have been established for over 50 years and are one of the few musical societies in the Midlands who still uphold the traditions of Gilbert & Sullivan by successfully performing G & S operas in Birmingham every year at the Old Rep Theatre. They also include a wide range of other music in their repertoire.

All proceeds will go to the National Institute of Conductive Education, which transforms the lives of disabled children and adults with cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, stroke, Parkinson's and head injury, building confidence and self-esteem, improving quality of life and giving hope for a better future. Registered Charity No. 295873.
